Nasser is the Co-founder & resident at PROGRESS:ON throwing down the latest Deep/Melodic/Progressive music.

As well as serving the dance floors of DJ Mag's favourite clubs including Digital, Club Upside Down and World Head Quarters, Nasser has supported Fuenka (FSOE UV / JOOF Recordings), Yeadon (Global Underground), Amir Hussain (FSOE), Clive Henry (Peace Division / Hooj Choons), and served as a resident at the Progressive Terrace for Transonic.

In 2002 he fell in love with a thriving local clubbing culture [Promise & Shindig] and in recent years has decided to follow his passion for underground Progressive music which took off at the same time as the return of the authentic sound within this genre.

Nasser is known for throwing private, intimate 12-hour events for an international Progressive & Melodic Techno following. His influences are mainly ranging from the warmup club openers of Lee Burridge, Analog Jungs & Matthew Dekay, to driving, energetic Progressive club rinsers from the likes of GMJ, Nishan Lee & Subandrio.

Today you can catch him throwing intimate terrace parties under his new brand PROGRESS:ON with Alan Ruddick, Phil Littleddyke and SOAP and during lockdown he is committed to live streaming on Sundays 3pm GMT in front of 300+ DJs and music lovers each week, strengthening support for artists and enabling everyone to discover brand new releases from established and rising stars in the scene.
